Manhattan Place - Youth Worker
Full- time Permanent (40 hours per week)
McMan Calgary & Area

Manhattan Place is a community-based group home for youth who are referred through Children's Services. This home provides a safe, stable living environment with individualized support and around the clock care for youth aged 13-17 years. Manhattan Place works closely with youth to strengthen relationships with their families and friends and foster connections in the community.

The Youth Worker is responsible for organizing and coordinating all general aspects of our youth's day to day needs (e.g., house responsibilities, managing a client caseload, setting up case conferences that support the transition plan and ongoing service plan goals of the youth). The Youth Worker supports and supervises the youth to ensure their needs are being met.

Hours of Work: Sunday - 8am-4pm, Monday – off, Tuesday – off, Wednesday – 4pm-12am, Thursday – 3pm-11pm
Friday – 8am-4pm, Saturday – 8am-4pm

The ideal candidate will have:

- Diploma/Degree in Human Services
- 2 to 5 years' experience in working with youth with complex needs in a group care setting
- Strong problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Strong writing, organizational, program planning and interpersonal skills
- Police check and Child Intervention Record Check (current within six months)
- Valid Driver's license and adequate insurance coverage
- Proof of 2 doses of COVID-19 Vaccination mandatory
