

PSECA (Protection of Sexually Exploited Children Act) Outreach Worker
Term Position: Until March 30, 2023
COPE (Collaborative Outreach Preventing Exploitation) Program
McMan Calgary
Internal/External

McMan is looking for a PSECA Outreach Worker whose role will be to engage with youth who are at risk of or engaged in sexual exploitation. The focus of the PSECA Outreach Worker will be on prevention, case management and outreach support to youth and their families. This position will work collaboratively with Children's Services PSECA Generalists and partnering agencies who provide services for youth who are engaged in or at risk of sexual exploitation to ensure a collaborative, client-centered approach to mitigating risk.

The successful candidate will possess the following:

- Diploma/Degree in Human Services
- Knowledge and experience with high-risk youth population, preferably in the areas of sexual exploitation and human trafficking
- Experience in working with youth and families with complex needs
- Understanding and ability to work with numerous social service systems
- Knowledge of the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act and PSECA (Protection of Sexually Exploited Children Act) legislation
- Knowledge and connection to community and professional resources
- Knowledge of diversity issues around culture, religion and other orientations
- Experience facilitating groups / community education
- Ability to work a flexible shift pattern that will include some evening work and occasional weekend work as well as the willingness to be on call
- Current Standard First Aid Certification, Suicide Intervention Training, Police and Child Intervention checks
- Valid Driver's license and adequate insurance coverage
- Must be fully vaccinated against COVID 19
