

Transitions Worker
Youth Transitions to Adulthood
Permanent Full Time
McMan Calgary & Area

Internal/External

The Youth Transition to Adulthood (YTA) program provides individualized support to youth to help them prepare for independence. The Transition Worker will be responsible for supporting youth to: locate appropriate housing options based on their needs, build their capacity and self-efficacy, make informed choices and plan for their futures, work towards their education and/or employment goals, access community resources and services, increase their social connections and build a stronger support network.

The Transition Worker will also be actively involved in supporting youth to address various complex needs including addiction and mental health and teaching life skills that will allow the youth to transition successfully into independence. A vehicle is necessary.

The successful candidate will have:

- Diploma/Degree in Human Services
- Experience working with youth with complex needs
- Strong problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Knowledge of appropriate community and professional resources
- Strong writing, organizational, program planning, facilitation and interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of the Natural Supports Framework (would be an asset)
- Ability to work a flexible schedule that meets the needs of the youth and those involved in their planning
- Current standard First Aid Certification and Suicide Intervention Training
- Police check and Child Intervention Record Check (current within six months)
- Valid Driver's license and adequate insurance coverage
- Own transportation

McMan Youth, Family and Community Services Association of Calgary & Area is a responsive and innovative organization making a difference in the lives of more than 2500 vulnerable children, youth and families annually.

We support children, youth and families with complex needs that can include mental health issues, addictions, homelessness, poverty and disability by providing them with the services and supports they need to thrive. As a fundamental practice across all McMan services, we work with individuals to help them maintain and grow relationships that can extend beyond our professional support - lifelong connections that can help people sustain and build on, their strengths and new skills.
